

BECAUSE:

1. Spanking teaches children two dangerous lessons: that hitting people is okay and that violence works.
2. Spanking destroys children's self-esteem, damages their ability to learn, and sets the stage for future emotional problems.
3. Children learn good behavior by imitating good behavior, and respect by being respected.